

VIGYANUM 2024

DATE: 21 September 2024

VENUE: College campus

Bhavan's Sheth R.A. College of Science, in collaboration with the Universal Science Forum, organized VIGYANUM 2024 on September 21st, 2024, at the college campus. This annual event aims to foster scientific thinking and innovation. To encourage maximum participation from students of different socio-economic backgrounds, no participation fee was charged, and prizes worth ₹25,000 were distributed among the winning participants.

Approximately 186 students participated enthusiastically, presenting their ideas through scientific models, posters, essays, and an elocution competition. The event was presided over by the Chief Guest, Mrs. Jayshree Mehta, a trustee, who delivered a keynote address highlighting the importance of such scientific initiatives. She commended the college for its dedication to promoting scientific activities. The audience were also enlightened by the speech of Mr K. R Chaudhary (from Gujarat Samachar) who graciously attended the event and emphasized the role of science in the progress of humanity.

The event was successfully carried out under the visionary leadership of Principal Dr. H.M Patel who provided all the necessary institutional support and resources. His seamless communication and collaboration with all stake holders ensured the events grand success. Dr. Bharat Makwana and Mr. Dilip Satasiya (Universal Science Forum) played pivotal roles in coordinating with external stake holders, such as sponsors, guest speakers and other agencies contributing to the event's smooth execution.

The enthusiastic participation of students from higher secondary schools in Ahmedabad, as well as those from non-science backgrounds, was highly appreciated by the judges evaluating the various competitions. Winners of the various competitions were awarded cash prizes and certificates, while special prizes were given to all schoolchildren in recognition of their efforts and innovative ideas. The college extends its gratitude to Infinium Toyota and ADC Bank for financial support in organizing the event. The teaching and non-teaching staff extended whole hearted assistance in the execution of the program and Vigyanum 2024 Committee gratefully acknowledges their help and support.

The event was a resounding success, and the college eagerly anticipates hosting similar events in the future.
